From Warsaw, make your way to Kraków, a city that feels like a real-life fairy tale. Wandering through the charming streets of its Old Town, you'll be captivated by the architectural wonders that surround you. Visit Wawel Castle, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, to get a glimpse into Poland's regal past. Explore the awe-inspiring St. Mary's Basilica and its remarkable Gothic interior.

But Poland is not just about historical gems. Embrace the natural beauty of the country as you venture into the magical landscapes of the Tatra Mountains. Hike through the verdant valleys, encounter breathtaking waterfalls, and revel in the tranquility of this picturesque region.

Unveiling Berlin's Contrast

Berlin, the vibrant capital of Germany, welcomes you with open arms, offering an intriguing mix of old-world charm and modern dynamism. Immerse yourself in the city's fascinating history as you visit the remnants of the Berlin Wall. The East Side Gallery, adorned with vivid street art, serves as a powerful reminder of the city's divided past.

Explore the iconic Brandenburg Gate and imagine the historical events that have unfolded here. Marvel at the architectural masterpiece that is the Reichstag building, which houses the German Parliament. Ascend to its rooftop terrace for panoramic views of the city, a sight that will leave you in awe.

Berlin's cultural scene is a melting pot of artistic expression. Visit Museum Island, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and lose yourself in the impressive collections of art and artifacts. Be sure to explore the Pergamon Museum, home to mesmerizing ancient structures such as the Ishtar Gate and the Pergamon Altar.

Indulge in Culinary Delights

No journey is complete without savoring the local cuisine, and Poland and Berlin offer a plethora of culinary delights. In Poland, relish traditional dishes like pierogi, a savory dumpling filled with various fillings, and gołąbki, a delectable cabbage roll stuffed with meat and rice. Pair your meal with a glass of Żubrówka, Poland's famous bison grass vodka.

In Berlin, treat your taste buds to currywurst, a beloved street food consisting of grilled sausage smothered in curry ketchup. Delve into the diverse food scene with Turkish-inspired dishes like döner kebab or feast on delectable bratwurst. Don't forget to try the mouthwatering Berliner, a jelly-filled donut that will leave you craving more.
