Rebecca Weber always wants to find the good in people. Her kind heart causes her family to see her as naïve and sometimes foolish. Wanting to rid themselves of any worry, they send her to a neighboring family to look after their children during harvest time.

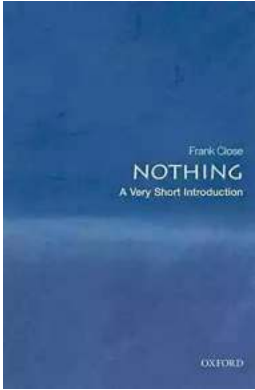

While Rebecca is fond of the little ones and likes the idea of giving them the best that she has to offer, she is smart enough to realize she wants more from her life... a family of her own.

She takes fate into her own hands and applies to be a mail-order bride to rancher, Peter Manning. Surely, this must be the answer to all her prayers?

However, Peter holds destructive secrets close to his heart.

Can Rebecca help Peter suppress his demons so that they can lead the life together they both deserve?
