The Birth of a Love Affair

Peter Jaggs' love affair with Thailand began like any other traveler's - a curiosity to explore the unknown. However, what followed surpassed all expectations. Venturing beyond the popular tourist spots, Jaggs immersed himself in the local communities, befriending the people and gaining incredible insights into their way of life.

From the tranquil villages of the north to the bustling cities of Bangkok and Pattaya, Jaggs experienced it all – the street markets bursting with tantalizing smells, the ornate temples emanating a sense of spirituality, and the serene beaches lapped by turquoise waters.

Unraveling Thai Culture

As Jaggs delved deeper into Thai culture, he noticed aspects that often remain hidden to the casual observer. One of the most intriguing aspects is the role of Buddhism in everyday life. Thai people are deeply connected to their religious practices, and Jaggs shares his firsthand encounters with monks, witnessing their rituals and gaining profound spiritual insights.

Furthermore, Thai cuisine is renowned worldwide, and rightly so. Jaggs explores the multitude of flavors, ranging from spicy street food to the delicate balance of a traditional Thai meal. From watching skilled chefs at work to indulging in delicious dishes, he provides a detailed account of the gastronomic wonders that Thailand has to offer.

The Thrill of Adventure

While Thailand offers tranquility and spirituality, it is also a playground for adrenaline junkies. Jaggs reveals the adventurous side of the country, from zip-lining through lush rainforests to diving into the depths of the Andaman Sea.

Whether it's exploring caves, swimming with sharks, or riding an elephant, Thailand offers endless possibilities for thrill-seekers.

Moreover, Jaggs uncovers the hidden gems of the countryside, where he found himself surrounded by nature's untouched beauty. Trekking through jungles, discovering hidden waterfalls, and interacting with wildlife were some of the exhilarating experiences that filled his journey.

Insider Tips and Beyond

As a seasoned traveler, Jaggs provides valuable insider tips that go beyond the conventional travel guidebooks. He shares advice on navigating local customs and traditions, getting off the beaten path, and connecting with locals on a deeper level. These insights will help any traveler make the most of their time in Thailand and create lifelong memories.

Jaggs' book, "Hooked On Thailand," captures the essence of this mesmerizing country, allowing readers to visualize themselves on this unconventional travel journey. With vivid descriptions and genuine enthusiasm, he invites you to experience Thailand through his eyes and encourages you to embark on your own extraordinary adventure.

Peter Jaggs' journey through Thailand is an inspiration for adventurous souls looking to embrace the wonders of a foreign land. His book, "Hooked On Thailand," is a gateway to the unconventional, where the beauty of Thai culture, adventure, and exploration come alive.

So, pack your bags, put on your explorer's hat, and get ready to be hooked on Thailand, just like Peter Jaggs!

Throw together a mad-keen fisherman and a sexy Thai woman, mix in a score of hilarious angling trips that take the couple from the shores of a secluded, balmy beach to the bustling fishing parks of Bangkok and Chiang Mai, add a dash of local color and customs, and you have the bait for getting Hooked on Thailand.

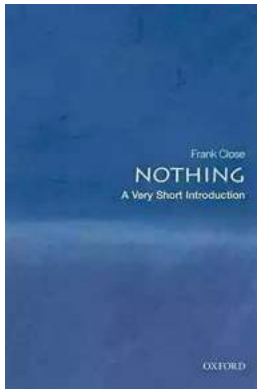

Join the author and his vivacious Thai girlfriend on their off-beat angling adventures as they travel around the country in search of snakehead, giant catfish and carp and fish inland waters as diverse as a barren jungle ditch to a world famous lake teeming with monsters. Take a ride with the irrepressible pair on the Banana Boat to a deserted tropical island where they cast a line for Long tom and barracuda, and accompany them as they hunt for rabbitfish, mackerel and rays in the warm tropical seas around Thailand's stunning coastline.

Peter Jaggs's fifth book provides a fascinating glimpse into the bird and animal life of Thailand, as well as giving the reader many insights into some of the more bizarre folklore tales and extraordinary characters any visiting fisherman will come across during his time in the country. A guaranteed laugh a chapter, together with a philosophical look at the relationship between a visiting angler and a Pattaya bargirl make Hooked on Thailand very much more than just a book about fishing.
