THE SAKALAVA-ANTAKARA LANGUAGE GUIDE AND PHRASEBOOK

is the most intuitive guide to learn the Malagasy language sakalava - antakarana.

With over 1,500 vocabulary words and an intuitive method of learning the language, this phrasebook is a must for anyone wishing to learn the Northern dialect. Knowledge of the idiomatic fundamentals of sakalava will facilitate your stay and allow a true immersion in the Malagasy culture. Your trip or your stay will take on a completely different dimension.

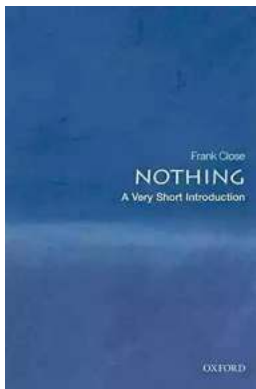

You will have a new, richer and more rewarding experience.

Sakalava-Antakarana is spoken in the Far North of Madagascar (Diego Suarez, Ambilobe, Ambanja, Nosy Be, etc.). The differences with speaking Tsimihety are slight even if however that some variations exist regarding vocabulary. There is therefore complete mutual understanding in the regions of Port-Bergé, Antsohy, Mandritsara, etc. In almost the entire northern half of the island, mutual understanding remains partial; thus, it is still possible to communicate in this language as far as the SAVA region, around Tamatave and Sainte-Marie and, on the west coast, from Mahajanga to Morondava.
