2 COMMON SCAMS

Rental Scams
Executed using a vacant property due to owners staying abroad or that is really up for sale.

Real Estate Agent Posers
Legitimate-looking listings uploaded online copied from somewhere else. Once security deposit or initial payment are paid, they'll leave you high and dry.

Forged Land Titles

Insufficient Disclosure
Real estate agents intentionally withhold information about the property that make potential clients think twice before buying.

3 RESEARCH & INVESTIGATE

Research is a very important part of the home buying process.

Don't just rely easily on the real estate agent you've hired. Know who you're dealing with and conduct a thorough background check. Find out how credible they are and if the property they are selling is really legitimate.

Inquire into properties through reputable online real estate platform.

Most established companies would be more reliable since they have a reputation and brand to take care of.
