

Seeing Australia In Motor Home: Old People Touring Australia By Motor Vehicle

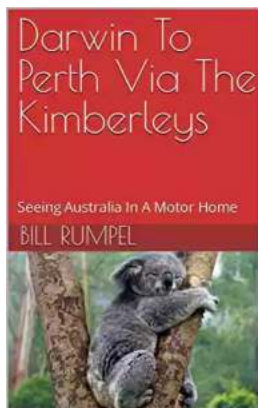

Have you ever dreamt of embarking on a grand adventure? A journey where the road stretches out before you, leading to breathtaking landscapes, magnificent coastlines, and unique wildlife encounters? Well, for a group of spirited retirees, that dream became a reality when they decided to tour Australia in motor homes.

As motorhomes gain popularity among older generations, many retired Australians have chosen to invest in these versatile vehicles to live out their travel dreams. With the freedom to explore at their own pace and the comfort of a home away from home, motorhomes provide the perfect escape for the old and young at heart.

So, what is it about motorhome travel that appeals so strongly to older individuals? The reasons vary, but here are the top attractions of touring Australia in a motor home:

1. Freedom and Flexibility:

Motorhome travel enables older individuals to enjoy the freedom and flexibility of the open road. Whether they wish to stay in one location for an extended period or spontaneously change their plans, motorhomes allow retirees to be in control of their travel adventures.

2. Comfort and Convenience:

Australia's vast landscapes can be explored comfortably in a motorhome. Equipped with all the necessary amenities, these vehicles provide a cozy home on wheels. From comfortable beds to well-equipped kitchens and bathrooms, motorhomes offer a comfortable and convenient way to experience the beauty of Australia.

3. Cost Savings:

Traveling in a motorhome can be a budget-friendly option for older individuals. With the ability to prepare meals on the road and camp in affordable caravan parks, retirees can significantly reduce their overall travel expenses.

One of the retirees who embarked on this motorhome adventure is Peter Thompson, an 70-year old retiree from Melbourne. He describes the experience as "liberating" and "the ultimate way to see Australia."

"Every day is a new adventure," Peter says. "We wake up in a different location, surrounded by stunning landscapes. It's like having a new backyard every day."

The possibilities for exploration are endless when touring Australia in a motorhome. From the iconic natural wonders like the Great Barrier Reef and Ayers Rock, to the beautiful coastal drives along the Great Ocean Road and the stunning National Parks, every corner of this vast country offers something extraordinary.

Whether it's a leisurely drive through the picturesque wine regions of Margaret River or a thrilling off-road expedition through the rugged terrains of the Kimberley, motorhome travel provides older individuals with the opportunity to create lasting memories and immerse themselves in the natural wonders of Australia.

Best Motorhome Routes in Australia:

While the entire country is a playground for motorhome travelers, there are a few routes that stand out as must-see experiences:

1. The Great Ocean Road:

Stretching along the southeastern coast of Australia, the Great Ocean Road offers spectacular views of towering cliffs, pristine beaches, and the famous Twelve Apostles. This iconic road trip is a favorite among both locals and tourists alike.

2. The Gibb River Road:

Located in Western Australia's Kimberley region, the Gibb River Road is one of the country's most challenging and rewarding routes. It takes travelers through rugged landscapes, ancient gorges, and stunning waterfalls, providing a true outback adventure.

3. The Nullarbor Plain:

For those seeking an epic cross-country journey, the Nullarbor Plain offers a unique experience. Spanning over 1,000 kilometers, this vast stretch of land showcases the beauty of the Australian outback, making it a bucket-list road trip for many.

Before setting off on a motorhome adventure in Australia, it's essential to ensure you're well-prepared. Here are some tips for a successful motorhome journey:

Tips for Motorhome Travel:

- Plan your route in advance and research the best campsites along the way.

- Invest in a good GPS system and have a backup map handy.
- Check the weather conditions regularly and be prepared for various climates.
- Pack essential supplies such as food, water, first aid kits, and spare parts.
- Take regular breaks to rest and rejuvenate during longer drives.
- Respect the environment and follow proper waste disposal guidelines.
- Connect with fellow motorhome enthusiasts and gather valuable travel tips.

So, if you're an older individual looking for a memorable way to explore Australia, consider embarking on a motorhome adventure. With the freedom to go wherever your heart desires, the comfort of a home on wheels, and the endless beauty of the Australian landscape, touring the country in a motorhome will undoubtedly be an experience you'll cherish forever.

"Age is just a number when it comes to exploring Australia in a motorhome. It's never too late to start a new adventure!"

Start planning your motorhome trip today and get ready to embrace the wonders of Australia like never before!

This book is the first of a series of trips Nancy and I have made in Australia. We don't live here but we visit often to see our Son and his family who do live here. They have lived both in Perth, Coomera, and Gladstone.

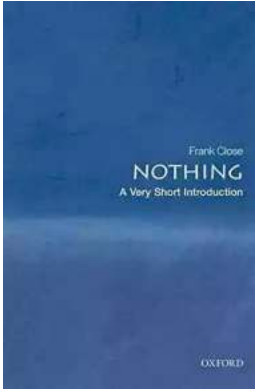

The other trips are from Melbourne, then South vis the Great Ocean Hiway, then North to Coomera via the Newall Hiway which takes you through the interior of south eastern Australia.

Another trip is by Motor Home from Darwin straight South to Adelaide with adjustments to Uluru, Alice Springs, Coober Petty, the Flanders, the Barraossa Valley, and other interesting spots.

An additional trip from Coomera to Sydney vis the coastal highway and side trips into the eastern mountains along the way.

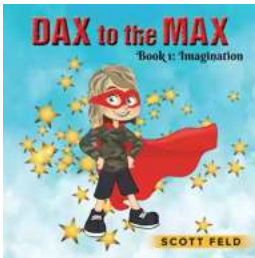

Lastly, a short jaunt from Coomera to Longreach via Rockhampton.

Not Everyone Travels the same. This is how we like to travel and get most out of it. What is contained in this book is not a tour guide nor a "How TO!". It is a record of an experience we wanted to try, enjoyed it, and want to share .
