As the winds of destiny blow, Sarah's life takes an unexpected turn when she meets James Donovan, a rugged and mysterious cowboy with a past as captivating as his mesmerizing brown eyes. Sparks fly between them instantaneously, and their journey together unfolds in a tapestry woven with love, passion, and triumph.

With a meticulously researched historical backdrop, "The Circle Of Love" paints a vivid picture of life in the Old West. Anderson's attention to detail brings the era to life, immersing readers in a world of dusty plains, expansive cattle ranches, and dreams waiting to be fulfilled. From the vibrant colors of a sprawling sunset to the echoing sounds of a lively saloon, every scene is crafted with care, allowing readers to feel like they have stepped back in time.

But it's not just the rich historical setting that sets "The Circle Of Love" apart; it's the genuine and tender romance that blossoms between Sarah and James. Their chemistry sizzles off the pages, leaving readers rooting for their love to prevail against all odds. Will they be able to overcome the hurdles that life throws their way? The only way to find out is to embark on this enchanting journey yourself.

When Grace Thayer's brother, Adam, suggests that they fulfill their father's wishes and move out west to take the government up on their offer of free land, Grace cannot help but be hesitant. After all, what do they know about growing crops and maintaining the livestock?

Her fears come tragically true when her darling brother loses his life due to the stresses and overwork of their homestead.

When she finds out Adam has left enormous debts, Grace must act - and fast - if she is to survive.

But what is she to do?

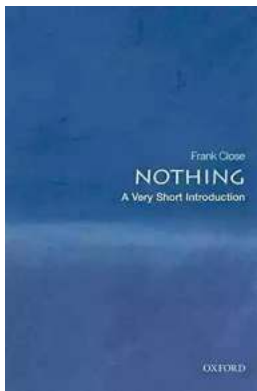

She knows less about the land than her hapless brother did!

Then, local friend and doctor, Peter Weston, comes to her rescue with a surprising suggestion.

Will Grace accept his proposal of sorts, enabling her to return to the East Coast, something she has longed to do since stepping foot on Montana soil?

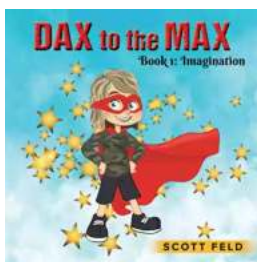

Or will the mysterious plan cause her to rethink her life completely?
