They took my childhood.

They took my country.

But when then they tried to take my sister, it led to their downfall.

You grow up fast when leading a rebellion. You learn who to trust - sometimes the hard way. You become hard because you have no other choice.

Whatever it takes. That's what it's come down to, but it didn't start out this way.

They've given us no options; no safe path to tread. They've imprisoned us. We've had to watch our friends die. But it ends now.

We're no longer alone. One fight is over, but another has just begun. Not all of us will make it, but there's a weapon that is more dangerous than anything we've ever seen. We have our mission: stop them from destroying everything we have and come back to help build everything we could hope for. A new world.

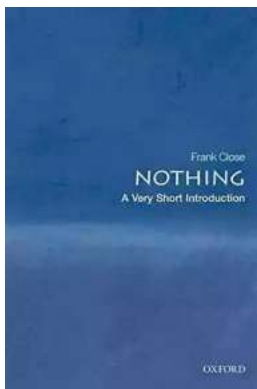

This wasn't the life anybody imagined, and we're going to do something about it.
