Jean (aka John) Bedard is Jean du Sud.

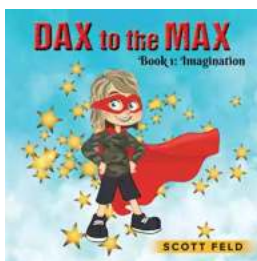

Jean Marc Arthur Bédard was a man who never refused what fortune threw his way. He was by any man's measure lucky and blessed. He survived three wars, the first two for Canada and the last for the United States. He wooed and married an amazing woman who he somehow convinced to follow him into a grand adventure of a life well lived, Thérèse.

This is his story as told by Jean's brother, Michel and translated, interpreted and annotated by his son, Pierre.
