Love Scotland? Highlanders? How about Vikings? Then this exciting romance is for you!

Frustration and hatred welled up in Iain's throat and he groaned, thrashing. He knew full well that it would do nothing to loosen his bonds, but his anger was too intense to ignore. His every movement caused discomfort and pain to spike through his battered body. "Let me go!" he shouted at his female captors in vain ...

Something cold and hard closed around his neck. "No!" he screamed, but it was useless. Helpless as he was, the shield maiden easily clamped the heavy cast iron shackle around his neck. A slave collar. Death would have been better. Would they torture him for sport?

In an instant Iain's world had been flipped upside down; torn from his beloved Scotland and spirited away by sea to a strange, barren and unforgiving land. In order to survive he must now come to terms with the inner demons that plague his dreams, but how? Who are these hardened female warriors - with their striking blonde hair and lust for blood - that now control his fate? Why does his heart betray him so, every time he sees the one -- Liv -- the seductively beautiful barbarian that controls his fate.

"Obey: The Shield Maiden's Highlander" is a historical romance with a Viking - Highlander twist! Guaranteed to get your blood boiling and captivate your imagination.

Best-Selling author Fiona Knightley paves the way to an unforgettable journey from the breathtaking beauty of the Scottish highlands, to the pristine fjords of Scandinavia. Are you ready to lose yourself and escape to a world of adventure and romance?
