He can never let her go ... not even when death is threatening to tear them apart.

Phoenix and Kai. Their story was simple.

They met in the park.

They connected by music.

They fell in love.

Nothing could separate them.

But destiny did.

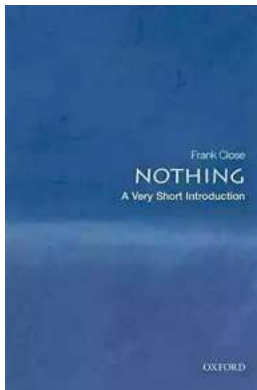

An accident tears them apart and Phoenix finds herself lost in a coma. It's been two years but Kai is still holding hope. Each week, he comes to visit her at the hospital, and reads an event from her diary, keeping her alive through her written memories.

He sings the songs they wrote. Reminisce about the moments they spent together and miss the kisses they shared. Only with each new day, Phoenix is slipping further away.

Will Phoenix wake up? And if she does wake up, will she be the same Phoenix Kai loves?

Because sometimes when it comes to coma patients, waking up is only the beginning.
