Story by Kelvin Beatty

This Is Love says what is the love in him? This love language is only selfish, barbaric, scary. His love using self-respect as a condition for my freedom was too luxurious.

Excerpt from a good online story:

He was curious as to why someone would lie on the grass by the highway to help his heart, with good intentions, and came to see if it could be of any help . Coming closer, I discovered a lost girl from heaven, perhaps a predestined fate story. He laughs at the thought of such a thing, lifting up the fallen bicycle.
