Humanity isn't lost all at once. Humanity is lost in pieces.

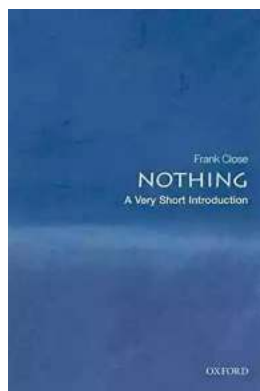

Adam Walker and Sidonie Evans have found each other at last, surviving against all odds in a terrifying new world full of monsters and death.

Sidonie is more than grateful to have Adam at her side, even if she doesn't understand why he came for her after everything that happened before. She'll need him more than ever as they set out into the Wilds in a desperate search for Sidonie's little brother. In a world this dark, their humanity won't be the only thing they have to fight to hold onto.

Adam has only one goal: to get Sidonie and her brother through the Wilds in one piece. But as Adam and Sidonie are drawn together despite every reason they should be apart, the perils of their journey through an apocalyptic landscape are far from the only dangers they'll face. The truest danger of all may be the risk to their own hearts, and the darkest battle is yet to come.

The end of everything is only the beginning....
